

Nodal Clear Awarded “Clearing House Innovation of the Year” at the Risk Awards 2017

WASHINGTON, DC, January 26, 2017

Nodal Clear, LLC, the clearing house subsidiary of Nodal Exchange, has been awarded “Clearing House Innovation of the Year” by Risk magazine at the Risk Awards 2017. The Risk Awards recognize the work of firms and individuals in the derivatives markets and risk management across the globe.

Nodal Clear commenced clearing Nodal Exchange contracts October 19, 2015 and serves as the central counterparty for all Nodal Exchange transactions. Nodal Clear is an innovative leader in risk management utilizing an expected shortfall methodology for portfolio margining providing strong risk management with capital efficiency. Since the transition to Nodal Clear, trading volumes on Nodal Exchange have risen significantly with 2016 volume growing 97% over 2015, and as of the end of 2016, Nodal Exchange open positions represented over 26% of all monthly term power futures open interest in the United States.

“Nodal Clear is honored to receive the Clearing House Innovation of the Year Award from Risk magazine,” said Paul Cusenza, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Nodal Exchange and Nodal Clear. “The success of Nodal Clear is a testament to the efforts and dedication of the employees of Nodal Exchange and Nodal Clear and to the ongoing support of all those in our trading and clearing community. We are so pleased that Risk has acknowledged these accomplishments.”

Risk presented the “Clearing House Innovation of the Year” award at a black-tie dinner in London on January 25th.
