The indemnification and advancement provided for in this Section 7.6 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Members or disinterested Board Members or otherwise, and shall continue as to a Person who has ceased to be a Board Member, director, manager, officer, employee, agent or controlling Person of the Company or any subsidiary thereof and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a Person.

(b) Actions Other Than by or in the Right of the Company. The Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify any Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) commenced by such Person, unless such commencement was authorized in the specific case by the Board), by reason of the fact that such Person is or was a Board Member, director, manager, officer, employee, agent or controlling Person of the Company or any subsidiary thereof, from and against any and all liability suffered and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such Person in such capacity, or arising out of such Person's status as such, in connection with such action, suit or proceeding so long as such Person acted in good faith and in a manner such Person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe such Person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that such Person did not act in good faith and in a manner such Person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that such Person's conduct was unlawful.

(c) Actions by or in the Right of the Company. The Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify any Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor (other than an action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) commenced by such Person unless such commencement was authorized in the specific case by the Board) by reason of the fact that such Person is or was a Board Member, director, manager, officer, employee, agent or controlling Person of the Company or any subsidiary thereof from and against any and all liability suffered and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such Person in such capacity, or arising out of such Person's status as such, in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit so long as such Person acted in good faith and in a manner such Person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such Person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action, suit or proceeding was brought shall finally judicially determine upon application and not subject to further appeal that, despite the adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances of the case, such Person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

(d) Success on the Merits. To the extent that any Person referred to in Section 7.6(b) or Section 7.6(c) has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in such Sections, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such Person shall be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by law against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such Person in connection therewith.

(e) Specific Authorization. Any indemnification under Section 7.6(b) or Section 7.6(c) (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of any Person described in such Sections is proper in the circumstances because such Person has met the applicable standard of conduct required by such Sections. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Board Members who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even if less than a quorum; or (ii) if there are no such Board Members, or if such Board Members so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

(f) Advance Payment. Expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) incurred by any Person referred to in Section 7.6(b) or Section 7.6(c) in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding referred to in such Sections shall be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such Person is not entitled to indemnification by the Company as authorized in this Section 7.6.

(g) Insurance. The Majority-In-Interest of the Members is authorized to cause the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Person who is or was a Board Member, director, manager, officer, employee, controlling Person or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a Board Member, director, manager, officer, employee, agent or controlling Person of the Company or any subsidiary thereof from and against any and all liability suffered and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by any such Person in such capacity, or arising out of such Person's status as such, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such Person against such liability under the provisions of this Section 7.6.

(h) Intent of Section. The intent of this Section 7.6 is to provide for indemnification and advancement of expenses to the same extent (except as specifically altered herein) as that which would apply under Section 145 of the DGCL as if the Company were a Delaware corporation, and it is the intent of the parties hereto that this Section 7.6 be construed in such a manner. To the extent that Section 145 of the DGCL or any successor section thereto may be amended or supplemented from time to time after the date of this Agreement, this Section 7.6 shall be deemed amended automatically and construed so as to permit indemnification and advancement of expenses to the fullest extent from time to time permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL or such successor section thereto, so long as such amendment is permitted under the Delaware LLC Act; provided, however, that no such amendment shall alter any provision of this Section 7.6 that limits indemnification or advancement of expenses based on who commences the applicable action, suit or proceeding. Unless required by law, any amendment or supplement to Section 145 of the DGCL or Section 18-108 of the Delaware LLC Act or any successor section thereto or to this Section 7.6 shall not adversely affect any right or protection of any Person entitled to indemnification or advancement under this Section 7.6 with respect to acts or omissions of such Person occurring prior to such amendment or supplement.

(i) Exculpation of Board Members. To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Board Member shall be personally liable to the Company, Holdings, or any other Person bound by this Agreement for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Board Member. No amendment, modification or repeal of this Section 7.6 shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any Board Member for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such Board Member occurring prior to such amendment, modification or repeal.

(j) Indemnification Agreements. The Company may enter into indemnification agreements with its Board Members providing for the indemnification described in Section 7.6(b) and Section 7.6(c).

7.7 Exculpation and Indemnity of Members

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Members shall not be liable or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Company or any other Person bound by this Agreement for any act or omission done or omitted by it in good faith, unless such act or omission constitutes willful misconduct or a breach of this Agreement on the part of Members. The Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify Members and their Affiliates, and its and their respective board members, directors, managers, officers, employees, agents and controlling Persons from and against any and all liability suffered and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by any such Person in such capacity, or arising out of such Person's status as such, other than in connection with any action, suit or proceeding brought by any Member against the Company, arising out of any act or omission of such Member in connection with the Company, unless such act or omission constitutes willful misconduct or a breach of this Agreement on the part of the Member.

The parties hereto acknowledge that Board Members may be designees of Holdings and that the Board Members have no duties (including fiduciary duties) to the Company as a result of serving as Board Members, and that any duties (including fiduciary duties) or implied duties of a Board Member to the Company that would otherwise apply at law, in equity or otherwise are hereby eliminated to the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware LLC Act and any other applicable law, and the Company and each other Person bound by this Agreement hereby waives all rights to, and releases each Board Member from, any such duties; provided, however, that the foregoing (i) shall not eliminate any obligation of the Board Members to act in compliance with the express terms of this Agreement or for any Board Member to act in accordance with any express duty specified in this Agreement, and (ii) shall not be deemed to eliminate any implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing of the Board Members under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the parties acknowledge that each Board Member, in determining whether or not to vote or consent in support of or against any particular decision for which Board approval is required, may act in and consider the best interest of Holdings or its members that elected such Board Member and shall not be required to act in or consider the interests of the Company or the other Persons bound hereby. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto acknowledge that Public Directors serving as Board Members are elected as independent members of the Board and have no duties (including fiduciary duties) to any parties except the Company in accordance with applicable law, and that any duties (including fiduciary duties) or implied duties of a Public Director to other Board Members or parties that would otherwise apply at law, in equity or otherwise are hereby eliminated to the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware LLC Act and any other applicable law. Each Member, the Company, and each other Person bound by this Agreement hereby waives all rights to, and releases each Public Director serving as a Board Member from, any such duties.

No Board Member or Affiliate of any Board Member who acquires knowledge of a potential transaction, agreement, arrangement or other matter that may be an opportunity for the Company shall have any duty, as a result of the Board Member's position as a Board Member, to communicate or offer such opportunity to the Company, and any such Person shall not be liable to the Company or to any Board Member or Affiliate thereof for breach of any fiduciary or other duty existing at law, in equity or otherwise by reason of the fact that such Board Member or Affiliate pursues or retains such opportunity or directs such opportunity to another Person or does not communicate such opportunity or information to the Company. None of the Company or any Affiliate thereof or any Board Member or any Affiliate thereof shall have any rights or obligations by virtue of this Agreement or the relationship created hereby in or to such independent ventures or the income or profits or losses derived therefrom, and the pursuit of such ventures, even if competitive with the activities of the Company, shall not be deemed wrongful, improper or the breach of any duty to the Company or any Board Member existing at law, in equity or otherwise.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Public Directors serving as Board Members may engage in any activities that disqualify their status as Public Directors in accordance with applicable law.
