Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Participant shall access the Services through the Nodal Site using Participant Technology. All such Participant Technology used to access the Services shall conform to any and all specifications therefor as Nodal may prescribe from time to time.

2.5 Restrictions on Use. Without Nodal’s prior written consent, except as otherwise expressly permitted under this Agreement, Participant shall not, and shall not permit any other Person to: (i) modify, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble the System, the Services or other Nodal Property (as defined below) or create derivative works based on any Nodal Property; (ii) distribute, disclose, or otherwise furnish any Nodal Property (as defined below), including non-public pricing data from the System or Services, to

3. Transactions.

3.1 Authorization. Participant acknowledges and agrees that all instructions issued by Participant through its Access Methods, including instructions or orders entered through the System or Services as conveyed by Authorized Users, are duly authorized and binding, and Nodal shall have no duty to investigate the accuracy thereof or the authenticity of authority thereby authorized. Participant further accepts full responsibility for: (i) any Transaction entered into by Participant in accordance with the Rules and the rules of the Clearing House; (ii) any use of the System or the Services made by Participant, its Account Administrators or its Authorized Users; and (iii) any Transaction effected in the name of Participant, notwithstanding that such Transaction may have been entered into (x) as a result of a failure of security controls and/or credit controls; or (y) by an unknown or unauthorized user employing a User ID assigned to an Authorized User, provided, however, that Participant shall not be responsible for any Transaction arising out of Nodal's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if an Authorized Broker submits Block Trades on Participant's behalf in connection with the use of Services, Participant represents and warrants that such Authorized Broker is authorized to act on Participant's behalf and instructs Nodal to comply with any instructions submitted by such Authorized Broker on behalf of Participant.

Participant understands and agrees that all Transactions concluded on or through the System or Services are binding Transactions between Participant and its counterparty that must be settled between Participant and its counterparty in accordance with the rules of the Clearing House and, if applicable, Participant's agreements with its Clearing Member. In no event will Nodal be a counterparty, either directly or indirectly, to any posting or any Transaction or be responsible for delivery of or payment for any Product resulting from a Transaction. Participant agrees that executed Transactions shall be deemed to be "in writing" and to have been "signed" for all purposes and that all records of any such Transaction shall be deemed to be in "writing." Participant will not contest the legality, validity or enforceability of any Transaction based on the fact that such Transaction was effected electronically and expressly waives all rights it may have to assert any such claim.

4. Fees.

4.1 Exchange Fees. Participant shall, upon the execution of a Transaction, pay to Nodal fees in accordance with such service and pricing schedules as are determined by Nodal from time to time and posted on the Nodal Site (the "Exchange Fees").

4.2 Payment. The Clearing House shall, on Nodal's behalf, submit to Participant or to Participant's Clearing Member (as applicable), a monthly invoice setting forth any and all Exchange Fees, including any other applicable charges or taxes.

4.3 Taxes. Participant shall be responsible for any and all taxes, levies, duties or similar charges, however designated, that may be assessed by any international, federal, state, municipal or other jurisdiction, however designated, arising out of Transactions made by or on behalf of Participant or otherwise arising out of Participant's use of the Services, other than any such taxes assessed or levied on Nodal in respect of income earned by Nodal.

5. Term and Termination.

5.1 Term; Termination. The term of this Agreement shall commence upon the Effective Date and shall continue until and unless this Agreement is terminated by either Party, for any or no reason, upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other Party. In addition, Nodal may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to Participant if (i) Participant commits a breach of any of its material obligations under this Agreement or violation of the Rules; or (ii) a change in law or actual or threatened legal action materially impairs the ability of Nodal to perform its obligations hereunder. Participant's right to access the System or Services shall cease immediately upon termination of this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement will remain in effect with respect to any Transactions that were effected prior to the effective date of termination of this Agreement.

Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, Participant shall (i) cease immediately all uses of the Services, the System and any Access Methods provided to Participant hereunder, (ii) upon request by Nodal, destroy or return to Nodal all tangible materials (and all copies thereof) provided by Nodal (or its third party service providers) hereunder, and, in the case of electronic records, destroy all such records to the extent reasonably feasible, and (iii) upon request by Nodal, certify in writing to Nodal that such materials have been destroyed or returned and no portion thereof remain in Participant's possession or control. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (a) in the event retention of the materials and records described in clause (ii) above is required by Applicable Law or regulation or by a self-regulatory body with competent jurisdiction over Participant, Participant agrees to continue to hold such materials and records as Confidential Information pursuant to Section 6 hereof and to destroy or return such materials and records to Nodal in compliance with this Section 5.2 once retention is no longer required, and (b) with respect to any electronic records of Participant not reasonably feasible to destroy, as described in clause (ii) above, Participant shall continue to hold such records as Confidential Information pursuant to Section 6 hereof. The termination of this Agreement for any reason will not affect the accrued rights of the Parties or the right of either Party to sue for damages arising from a breach of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the termination of this Agreement, Participant shall remain liable to pay Nodal all Exchange Fees (if any) due or accruing on or prior to the effective date of such termination. Those provisions of this Agreement which by their terms would reasonably be expected to survive beyond the effective date of termination of this Agreement, shall remain in full force and effect following the effective date of termination of this Agreement, including Sections 2.5, 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 4, and 5 through 26.

6. Confidentiality.

6.1 Confidential Information. Any and all non-public information, in any form, obtained hereunder by either Party arising out of or related to the provision or use of the System, the Services, or other Nodal Property shall be deemed to be "Confidential Information." Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Nodal's Confidential Information shall specifically include all source code of the System, and all trade secrets, processes, computer software and other proprietary data, research, information or documentation related thereto. 6.2 Nondisclosure. Each Party shall hold in strict confidence the Confidential Information of the other Party, shall use the same degree of care in protecting the confidentiality of the Confidential Information as it uses in protecting its own information of a similar type, and shall not disclose Confidential Information of the other Party to any third party or use Confidential Information of the other Party for any purpose not expressly permitted under this Agreement; except that a Party may disclose Confidential Information of the other Party solely to those of its Representatives who have a need to know such Confidential Information to facilitate performance of this Agreement. The receiving Party will inform its Representatives of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information, will be responsible for enforcing the terms of this Agreement as to its Representatives, and will take such action, legal or otherwise, as may be reasonably necessary to cause them to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information may be disclosed (i) by Nodal in accordance with the Rules relating to the use of Confidential Information; (ii) to the extent required by Applicable Law or regulation or the rules of a Self-Regulatory Organization of competent jurisdiction; (iii) by Nodal upon request by the CFTC or the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission; (iv) by Participant upon request from any federal or state agency, any regulatory or self-regulatory body, or any other organization, in each case having competent jurisdiction over such Participant; and (v) pursuant to a subpoena or order of a court or legislative, regulatory or self-regulatory body of competent jurisdiction, provided that, in the case of clauses (iv) and (v) above, the disclosing Party shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, immediately notify the other Party of such disclosure and cooperate with such Party to obtain appropriate confidential treatment of any Confidential Information to be so disclosed. Participant hereby releases Nodal from any and all liability by reason of disclosing such information.

7. Proprietary Rights.

19. Assignment.

Participant shall not assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the prior written approval of Nodal, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. For purposes of this Section 19, any assignment by Participant, whether by operation of law, under an order of any court, or pursuant to any plan of merger, consolidation or liquidation, shall be deemed an assignment for which Nodal's prior written consent is required, and any assignment made without such consent shall be void and of no effect as between the Parties hereto.

20. Separability of Provisions.

Each provision of this Agreement shall be considered separable; and if, for any reason, any provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, such determination shall not affect the enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement or the validity, lawfulness, or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

21. Waiver.

The failure of a Party to exercise or enforce any right conferred upon it by this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any such right or operate so as to bar the exercise or enforcement thereof at any time or times thereafter. No waiver by either Party hereunder shall be effective unless agreed to pursuant to a writing signed by an authorized representative of each Party.

22. Remedies Not Exclusive.

No remedy conferred by any provision of this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, and each and every remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing in law or in equity or by statute or otherwise.

The Parties hereby consent to the venue and jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in New York, New York, and waive any objection thereto. Each Party hereby waives its right to trial by jury in any such action.
